Items needed:

- A ball

Instructions:

1. Divide the children in 2 teams
2. Children are to stand on opposite sides of a line (eg. like in volleyball)
3. The ball gets bopped back and forth
4. The first child to hit the ball says the first word of the memory verse
5. The second child to hit the ball says the second word and so on.
(if the ball hits the ground the opposite team wins a point, if a player cannot say his or her word, the opposite team wins a point.)
6. the first side to complete saying the memory verse wins

(You can also play this game in a circle with NO teams and bop the ball around the circle. Each time a child hits the ball they will say the first word and so on until the whole verse is said)
