Items needed:

- Felt pen
- Large index cards (one for each word in verse)
- Masking tape

Instructions:

1. Spread verse cards around the room/outside, and tape them
2. Children gather at center of room
3. Teacher says "Run chickens"
4. The children then scatter and run to any card
5. When a child touches a card they freeze in a funny position
6. When all the children are frozen, point to the children at the first word and they will say that word
7. Then point to the children at the second word..... and so on until the whole verse has been read
8. Repeat the game allowing children to run to a different card each time

(more than one child is allowed at a card, but encourage them to spread)

9. Discuss the verse at the end.
